Atmospheric and provocative, Rumaan Alam's 3rd novel commences off as an enthralling familial portrait that shortly devolves into cinematic disaster. As two family members are thrown right into a nightmare, questions within the complexities of parenthood, and the nature of race and course are introduced into the floor within a tense stand-off that should have you questioning just what you might do when faced with the collapse of civilization as we realize it. Lively, tense and thrilling, it is a gem.
